

MUSIC NEWS TO NOTE

Welcome to our new newsletter presented by the Fairfield Tempo Club. Our hope is to provide readers a brief overview of events occurring across the entire Music Department, showcase our student musicians, and coordinate volunteerism.

HAPPY NEW YEAR!

We hope everyone had a great holiday season, and we are excited to have our students back into the classrooms!

We had a great month of December with all of the amazing holiday concerts. And, lots of collaboration between the programs during the concerts and the Fairfield middle schools.

Jazz Ensemble, Chamber Winds, & Wind Ensemble Holiday Concert

BAND

Crossroads MS Select Band students attended a performance of the Cincinnati Pops at Music Hall.

Congratulations to the following students who were selected to perform at the Bowling Green State University Honor Band Festival. Students were able to tour campus, attend masterclasses, listen to concerts by BGSU top performing ensembles and rehearse to perform in a special concert. Participants were Kyla Tillman, clarinet; McKenna Martin, clarinet; Natalia Delgado, clarinet; Helena Borden, flute; Allyson Johnson, bass clarinet; Zach Thompson, alto saxophone; Gabriel Sander, trumpet; Ari Coxhead, trombone; and Adam Singleton, alto saxophone.

December was a month of amazing & fun concerts. Orchestra enjoyed playing a concert for district fifth-grade students where the Grinch stole Mr. Ledbetter's baton, tree, & ultimately the show. Santa & Mrs. Claus brought a great twist to our holiday concert taking photos and checking their list. Mr. Ledbetter's highlight of the month was Secret Santa Time with the orchestra seniors.
